1. As per RFP document the bidders were instructed to quote the service charges in percentage. Due to technical reasons the bidders are here by instructed to quote the total service charges required for this service/work in rupees only.
2. The quoted value by the bidder will be considered as rupees with respect to the financial evaluation.
3. The quoted value by the bidders, converted into respective percentages manually at the time of financial evaluation.